Updates from the latest Grotto Meeting and Events –
NEXT MEETING: March 7th, Location is TBD

UPCOMING EVENTS

Cavort Workday #3: We will have our third cavort work day to prepare for the cavort on February 17th.

2024 Cavort-Pirates of the Karstibbean: Avast ye mateys, we are getting closer to the date of the cavort, which is March 15th-17th at Jerry's Farm. We have lots of funtivities and great raffle prizes planned. The early registration price is $40 dollars and it increases to $50 after March 1st. The last day to put in a shirt order is February 22nd, so be sure to purchase tickets to the cavort, along with meal tickets, and a cavort shirt here.

PAST TRIPS AND EVENTS

Cavort Workday #2: RCG met up again for the second workday on January 6th. Along with getting the site prepared for cavort weekend, we also enjoyed a little caving and ropework. Thanks again to FSS for their help!

Warren's Trip: On January 7th, a few of our members accomplished their goal of making it to the pit at Warren's Cave. If you want to read more about their expedition, you can read Scott Thompson's recap of the trip here.

FINANCIAL UPDATE

Financial State: We are solid financially.

CAVING IN THE NEWS

In Arunachal, Trekkers Find Cave Used by Allied Forces as Transit Camp During WWII: Tagit Sorang's team of 27 was scaling the hills of the frontier state's Tirap district when it came across a stone cave near the Arunachal-Myanmar border. According to the locals, Allied Forces used the cave as a transit camp to resist Japanese soldiers making their way from Burma (now Myanmar) to vast parts of North-East Frontier Agency (now Arunachal Pradesh).
